TENUTA MARINO TERRA ASPRA AGLIANICO 2010

Basilicata

91/100

Dark ruby with a mature tawny rim. Intense nose of wild herbs, sage, dark cherry and cassis, the palate has good density and weight with ripe but wealthy tannins, layered spiciness with pepper and wild herbs, juicy dark fruit and a long intense finish, nice drinkability. Despite the richness of tannin, a juicy piece of herb crusted lamb roast is the only thing missing.
